

South Bronx – A vulnerable, transit-connected, but not yet integrated waterfront

South Bronx – Disconnected from the urban fabric by the Major Deegan Expressway ↓

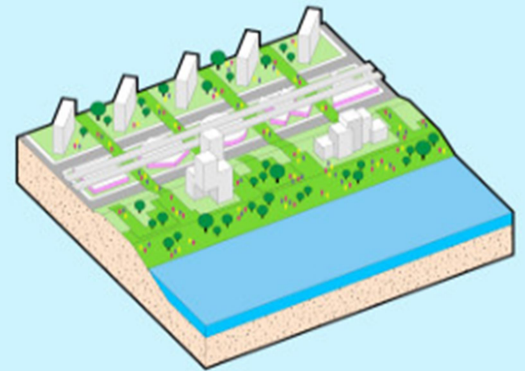

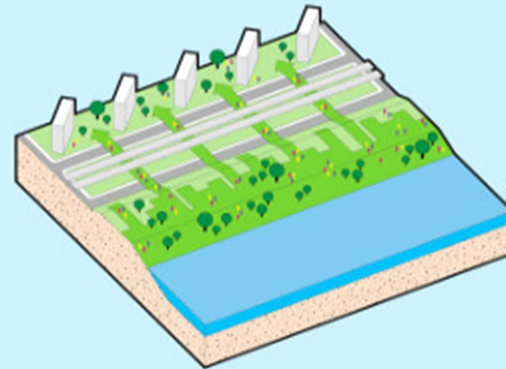

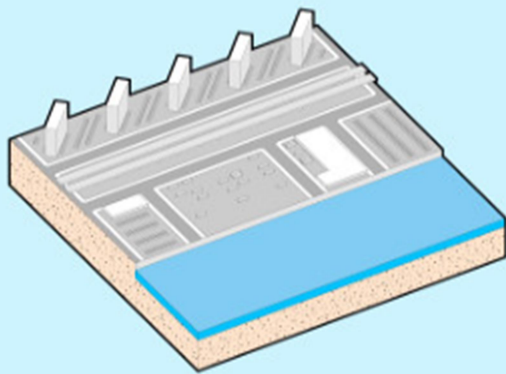

How can an integrated approach protect existing NYCHA tracts, re-connect the city to the waterfront, and provide a platform for growth, affordable re-development, and other housing choices?

CAN REDEVELOPMENT OF SOUTH
BRONX'S INDUSTRIAL EDGE
PROTECT, REVITALIZE, AND SET
THE STAGE FOR GROWTH?
